

THE DIVINE LITURGY

Again we offer unto thee this rational made perfect in faith: The priest or bishop takes the censer and says:

Exclamation: Especially for our most holy, most pure, most blessed and glorious Lady Theotokos and Ever-virgin Mary;

Meanwhile, the singers:'

It is truly meet to bless thee, O Theotokos, ever-blessed and most pure and the Mother of our God. More honorable than the cherubim and more glorious beyond compare than the seraphim, without corruption thou gavest birth to God the Word: true Theotokos, we magnify thee.

As they sing, the first deacon goes to the high place, makes the usual reverences, and kissing the altar as he passes, goes out through the Royal doors.

As the choir finishes the first Deacon standing in front of the Icon of Christ says:
