

King, always, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.]

MITER: The Lord has set upon thy head a crown of precious stones; thou didst ask life of him, and he gave thee length of days, always, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

DIKIRION & TRIKIRION: May thy light so shine before men that they may see thy good works and glorify thy Father, who is in heaven, always, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

AT ORDINATIONS

When the candidate is kneeling at the corner of the holy table and the bishop is ready:

PROTOD'N: Let us attend.

BISHOP: The grace divine, which always heals...

CLERGY: Kyrie, eleison. (thrice)

PROTOD'N: Let us pray to the Lord. (in a low voice)

As the bishop prays, the protodeacon (at a diaconal ordination) or the first priest (at a priestly ordination) reads this litany from within the sanctuary, the clergy near him making the responses:

IN PEACE let us pray to the Lord.

R̄. Lord, have mercy. (after each petition)

For the peace from above and for the salvation of our souls, let us pray to the Lord. R̄.

For the peace of the whole world, for the welfare
